PROSTHODONTIST DAY CELEBRATED ALL OVER THE COUNTRY AND ASIA

JANUARY 22 : PROSTHODONTIST DAY

The Prosthodontist Day 2019 was celebrated with unprecedented gayety through wonderfully coordinated efforts in organising programs and events all across the country . From organising street plays and flash mobs to organising public awareness talks and road shows to denture camps and skill competitions for UG and PG students it was celebration galore all across the country .

It is also worth noting that this day was celebrated all across Asia by most of the Asian Prosthodontic Societies acknowledging this initiative of the Indian Prosthodontic Society . You all are aware that this day was conceived by the IPS head office as an occasion where in the prosthodontist fraternity can use all their might and effort to promote the speciality among the general public as well as other medical fraternity . A big thank you from the Indian Prosthodontic Society Head office , its President and Executive Council to each and everyone of you , the regional branches and to the various dental institutes, for coming forward in celebrating and promoting this day in a big way. Thank you all and hope the coming years will witness more heightened activities on this special day.
